

“A PETACULAR EVENT”

A BENEFIT FOR ATLANTA PET RESCUE, INC.

December 30, 2004 – Atlanta Pet Rescue & Adoption, Inc. is delighted to announce an evening of fun and celebration on February 26, 2005 from 7:30 PM until 12:00 PM at the Mason Murer Fine Art Gallery in midtown Atlanta. The evening’s proceeds will benefit Atlanta Pet Rescue and will include hors d’oeuvres, wine and dancing with entertainment by The Mike Veal Band, a seven-piece band with brass and vocals. The evening will also include an art show and silent auction. Dress is black tie or blue jeans. Tickets are $75.00 (tax deductible) at the door or $65.00 if purchased in advance. Opportunities still exist for private or corporate sponsorships.

Atlanta Pet Rescue is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, no-kill animal shelter that operates on a shoestring budget, and found adoptive homes for over 2,000 dogs and cats in 2004, and anticipates even more adoptions for 2005.

Atlanta Pet Rescue recently expanded to include a new location at 720 14th Street (at Howell Mill Road) in midtown Atlanta. The expanded facility has 3,500 square feet of space and will provide safe, comfortable quarters for previously homeless, abused and/or neglected dogs and cats while they await adoption. The facility will also provide an indoor, climate-controlled facility for weekly adoptions.

The new site is an expansion of the existing, smaller facility at 4250 Woodland Brook Drive, which will now serve only as a temporary housing facility for underage, sick or recovering animals until they can be transferred to the new shelter for adoption. “We’re very excited that this new space will allow us to meet the overwhelming need for growth. We have had a wonderful response from the community,” said Judy Price, founder and director of Atlanta Pet Rescue.
