ATLANTA PET RESCUE & ADOPTION ANNOUNCES ITS FIRST ANNUAL RUMMAGE FOR RESCUE SALE

ATLANTA, April 4, 2003 — Atlanta Pet Rescue, an all-volunteer animal rescue organization, announced today its first annual Rummage for Rescue sale to be held on Saturday, April 26 10a.m. until 3p.m. at The Barking Hound Village at 1918 Cheshire Bridge Road.

100 percent of Rummage for Rescue sale proceeds will go to support Atlanta Pet Rescue's efforts.

Established in 2000, Atlanta Pet Rescue is dedicated to the care and placement of homeless dogs and cats. The organization rescues the majority of its animals from shelters where they are destined to die. Others come from pet owners who are unable or unwilling to care for their pets any longer. In 2002, Atlanta Pet Rescue rescued and adopted out 740 dogs and 115 cats. Adoptions are held every Saturday from noon until 5p.m at The Barking Hound Village on Cheshire Bridge Road.

Atlanta Pet Rescue is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The success of the organization is due to the many volunteers who give selflessly of their time and efforts. There are no salaries, 100 percent of adoption fees and donations go to the treatment and care of the rescued animals.
